

FACTS SOUGHT IN COAL SHORTAGE

Information Invited By C. C. Body From Consumers

(PLAN TO PURCHASE COKE

Many Household Unsupplied, Dealers Report.

Small industries whose coal supply is practically exhausted should get in touch with H. L. Breckenridge, chairman of the chamber of commerce fuel committee, at once, it was urged Monday.

Preparations are being made to supply these small concerns with the coal they need so badly. Several small bakeries, laundries and similar establishments have less than a week's supply of coal on hand, it was said.

Possibility of bringing shipments of coke to the city were being considered by the fuel committee Monday. This will be somewhat higher in price than coal, but will be of a high quality and fill the demand for fuel, they assert.

SMALL FIRMS HIT

A large number of small firms in the city have been preparing for an emergency and are ready to weather any crisis not of too extended duration. Small plants and domestic consumers are not so well provided for, the committee's survey shows.

Letters were mailed to each coal dealer in the city Monday requesting a complete written report on the domestic fuel situation within 24 hours. These reports are for the confidential use of the committee and will not be made public.

It is desired to know how much coal has been purchased during the summer months, amounts on hand, probable assured supply and estimated domestic demand during each month until the first of the year.

There is a feeling that the amount of coal going into the city during the summer months was below normal and that the consumers are in no position to weather a coal shortage of any length.

Very small amounts of coal are on hand at the present time in the yards of local coal companies, and should a run on the market occur the supply would be exhausted within a few days.

SUPPLY LIMITED

Only coal from non-union mines is coming into Lima and that in very small quantities when compared with the needs of the city, it is believed. Demands for the remainder of the year can be estimated from the sales in other years, the committee believes.

With the survey of the industrial and domestic situation practically completed, the committee will turn its efforts toward obtaining the amounts of coal necessary for supplying the city.

Just what steps will be taken will depend upon the action of the government to a great extent. If a fuel administration is appointed for Ohio, the local committee will work with him.

SPEED TRAP NEAR DAYTON

BROKEN UP; MOVE TO GET RETURN OF MONEY PAID IN

Motorists from Allen or nearby counties who have been fined for speeding on Brandy pike, near Dayton, have a chance to get their money back, if a receipt can be presented.

A refund on fines collected by "Squire" George C. French, Wayne township, has been ordered by Judge R. C. Patterson, of Montgomery county.

H. Reed, a constable is said to have conspired with "Squire" French in extorting money from motorists has been removed, on the recommendation of Paul Ackerman, secretary of the Dayton Automobile club.

Ackerman was instrumental in breaking up the speed trap by which car owners were held up and forced to pay $10 for their release. A speed trap was maintained and motorists proceeding at a lawful speed "framed," Ackerman told the court.

Reed, operating a motor cycle, ran the motorists down and served them with notice to appear in court for $10, he would release them, it was charged.

The Lima Auto club will handle cases for return of money to motorists in this vicinity if they will leave their receipts at headquarters.

900 REGISTER, SECURE

Approximately 900 new registrations and transfers from one precinct to another were recorded in poll books in 70 Lima precincts Friday and Saturday.

Registration Saturday afternoon and evening exceeded in volume all recorded in the preceding period. Polling places closed at 10 p. m. city time. Reports made to the board of elections point to an average registration per precinct of slightly under 14 voters. This includes transfers. Official count may show some increase.

NORTHLIFFE POISONED IN GERMANY, RUMORS IN LONDON NOW INDICATE

LONDON.—Rumors that Viscount Northcliffe, "the thunderer," was poisoned in Germany during his incognito tour, were afloat in Fleet-st. today.

The famous publisher's physical condition has been a puzzle over a complicated toxic condition. Associates say his recovery is unlikely, and even that he escapes death from the present illness, he will never again assume control of his publications, or wield dominant power in British politics.

Close friends of Northcliffe are inclined to discount the story that he was poisoned, pointing out that his presence in Germany was generally unknown until after his arrival back in England.

able to work undisturbed in a pocket formed by surrounding buildings.

Paul W. Crawford first learned of the robbery when he entered the store and walked to the rear. He found the rear door unlocked.

"Did you open this door?" he asked of George Lindenbaugh, a window cleaner.

"No," was the reply.

"SALE IS WRECKED" Crawford then stepped inside his office. The place was a wreck. Papers, chunks of iron and concrete were strewn about the floor. From an electric light socket a long wire extended to the floor. The end was wrapped around the nickel-plated safe knob.

The door of the safe was bent and twisted. The inner lining containing the combination and tumblers was blown to pieces.

Police believe the job was pulled between 1 a. m. and 2 a. m. Monday. A night watchman employed by merchants makes his last round toward midnight.

Sunday afternoon Crawford was in the store for a few minutes. Everything was intact.

"Chief T. A. Lanter said he was working on the case, but has come to no definite conclusions."

IMPLEMENT'S FOUND

A syringe found at noon Monday by Crawford may prove a valuable clue in running down the robbers. Search was made for the instrument on advice of a safe-salesman, who advised that the funnel could probably be located.

The syringe and funnel were used in placing the nitro-glycerine in the safe. The police now have the syringe. It was concealed in a desk. A few drops of nitro were still inside.

Search is being made for two mysterious men who came into the store Saturday afternoon. The men walked to the office and asked to see a city directory. After turning a few pages, one of them inquired where Scott-st. was located and the two walked out.

Loss due to the robbery is protected by insurance. Crawford announced. Scores of persons visited the store Monday to view the shattered safe and see for themselves how the jobmen worked.

Y. M. C. A. CAFETERIA

PARTIAL VICTORY WON BY KEAN

Invisible Empire Candidate Nominated in Texas Primary.

HOT RUN-OFF IS EXPECTED

Bitter Fight May Be Waged By Defeated Men.

DALLAS, Tex. — Returns from Saturday's Texas Democratic primary tabulated at 11 o'clock and including 247 of the 250 counties in the state, 29 of them complete, gave:

For United States senator Mayfield, 100,785; Ferguson, 74,527; Culbertson, 68,947. O'Quley, 35,581; Henry, 27,734.

DALLAS, Tex. — (United Press.) —The Ku Klux Klan organization has won a partial victory in its first political campaign on a large scale, it was indicated today when E. B. Mayfield, pro-Klan candidate for the nomination of state senator, was elected from Texas, led his nearest opponent, James E. Ferguson, in the statewide Democratic primary, by a plurality of approximately 25,000.

However, opponents of the Klan pointed out that the Knights of the Invisible Empire could not claim a complete victory unless its candidate is successful in the run-off primary August 26.

Returns from Saturday's primary, incomplete, show that Klan candidates polled approximately 18,000 votes in 19 counties. The Klan combined anti-Klan vote totaled over 200,000, the anti-Klan vote being split among four candidates.

Returns from 234 of the 250 counties in the state tabulated today, 18 of them complete, give Mayfield, 93,575; James E. Ferguson, anti-Klan, 68,198; Charles A. Culbertson, anti-Klan, 59,745; Cullen P. Thomas, anti-Klan, 51,146; Clarence P. O'Quley, anti-Klan, 35,333; Robert L. Henry, 27,486.

Governor Pat Neff has been re-nominated and in a majority of points to his re-election without the necessity of a run-off in the second primary.

James E. Ferguson, long a storm center in Texas politics, promises to again figure in this state's affairs. The former governor waged a strenuous campaign against the Klan. He was the only anti-prohibitionist entered in any of the major contests and declared strong opposition to the present federal reserve system.

HARD FIGHT PROBABLE Should Mayfield and Ferguson meet in a runoff, this state's election would be one of the hottest campaigns and hardest fought races in history.

Mayfield, who did not mention the Ku Klux Klan in any of his utterances, received 90 per cent of the vote.

On the other hand, Robert L. Henry, declaring "he carried the fiery cross in one hand and the American flag in the other," ran a poor last. This was explained by Mayfield being endorsed at a secret meeting of high Klan officials at Austin recently and the officials passed down by them that Mayfield was "the man."

Culbertson was the first senatorial candidate to come out flatly against the Klan and waged a strenuous fight on the masked secret order.

FINED FOR DRUNKENNESS; DENIES FIGHTING CHARGE

Charges of intoxication and fighting were lodged Monday in police court against Carl Stratton, 22, of 121 W. North-st., arrested at the circus Saturday night on N. West-st. He was in a scuffle with Sergeant Edwards when the latter arrested him, police say.

Stratton denied fighting and will stand trial Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. He is out on $25 bond.

Stratton was fined $15 on the drunkenness charge.

RUSSIAN VIOLINIST IN PROGRAM CLASSICS AT ROTARY CLUB LUNCHEON

For 45 minutes Zimov, Russian violinist, held the members of the Rotary club spellbound at their luncheon Monday noon at the Hotel Norval.

A program of selections ranging from the most difficult to the simple strains of "My Old Kentucky Home," was given with a technique and vim seldom seen. He was assisted by Mademoiselle Schreier, pianist.

This was the first American recital of the Russian violinist who, only a few short months ago, was a member of a refugee gypsy band in Russia, wondering where his next meal was to come from.

Rotarians agreed that he is one of the greatest violinists ever heard in the city and predicted that he would become one of the leaders in musical circles.

Monday was Rotary "Guest Day" and the visitors were given the opportunity to speak for a few minutes. More than a dozen responded to the invitation, telling of their experiences. A number of Rotarians from other cities were present.

A letter from Mrs. Warren G. Harding was read in which she thanks herself and the President were expressed to the Lima Rotarians for the remembrance bouquet given them at Marion July 4.

POWER MEN HERE

Survey of City Lighting System Started Monday.

While representatives of the Ohio Power Co. are in the city making a survey of the municipal lighting system, a definite proposal will be made about next Monday, H. G. Sterling, East Liverpool, said.

This survey is being made to determine the amount of power required by the city for the boulevard and other lighting systems and to set a rate at which the power can be supplied.

Other minor details of the proposed franchise whereby Lima will obtain large quantities of power for industrial development may also be cleared up, city officials announced.

No further developments have been seen in the street railway franchise sought by the proposed Lima Street Railway Co., D. J. Cable, said. Meetings with the city may be held later in the week, but none are now scheduled, it was announced.

SEARCH FOR BOY

Officials Fear Mine Operators Son Is Kidnapped.

CADIZ — (United Press) — Authorities of three counties scoured the countryside today for Oliver S. Monaza, 17, son of A. Monaza, wealthy retired mine operator, who disappeared yesterday.

Fear that the boy had been abducted by blackhanders, spurred officers to make a thorough search, following announcement by the father that he had received several threatening letters.

Monaza, in the letters, was called upon to turn over a large sum of money to the writer, he told authorities.

Shortly before his disappearance, he was leached, young Monaza drew $1,000 from a bank in Adena, his home.

Authorities of Harrison, Jefferson and Belmont, all coal mining counties, had joined in the search today.

Those in favor of strict enforcement of the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead law, 75,597.

Those in favor of a Federal bonus for all soldiers and sailors who wore the uniform during the World War, 102,378.

Those opposed to such a Federal bonus, 102,370.

The returns in the second week of the poll more than doubled those of the first week and apparently showed a slight decrease in the wet sentiment.

A detailed tabulation of the vote in the Middle West States shows the following in dry, moist and wet strength, respectively:

Ohio: 6,540, 4,562, 1,942.
Indiana: 14, 65.
Illinois: 13,331, 15,926, 8,559.

Kentucky: 27, 25, 28.
Tennessee: 42, 17, 10.
West Virginia: 18, 20, 4.

In the letters received by the Literary Digest, the common theme was protest to the saloon and the liquor traffic. Certain writers suggested laws such as are in force in Quebec and British Columbia, where in the absence of saloons citizens may buy what they wish from Governmental stores.

Then she said, she was going back to her former husband, Ralph Oberchain, and a home he was preparing for her in Evanston, Ill.

Several months ago, Oberchain, while acting as her attorney, obtained a license here to remarry her but the authorities refused to permit a wedding.

MINE OPERATION IS STARTED

Mine Workers already has informed the governor such permission will not be given in Michigan until a national agreement between operators and miners has been reached.

Governor Cressbeck was prepared to offer every inducement to the miners to obtain consideration of his proposals but indicated that in case no agreement can be reached, he would undertake direction of the mine and attempt to produce coal. Prior to his departure the governor declared that the coal shortage is becoming too acute in Michigan to permit further delay in bringing about resumption of operations.

STRIKE THREATENED

BRIDGEPORT, O. — (United Press) — The walking out of about 40 maintenance men employed by mines at Providence and Maynard, both in Belmont-co, was seen today as a drastic protest against the movement of state troops into mine territory.

C. J. Albasius, arbitration commissioner of the Pittsburgh Vain Operators' Association, declared the action of the pump men did not have the sanction of the union and that it constituted a violation of the agreement between the United Mine Workers' sub district officials and the operators. He said the maintenance men walked out only in isolated cases and the majority of the men were at work. Those who were on strike he said, probably will return to work at the request of mine workers officials today.

Pump men were reported out at the Clarkson mines and a few at the Y. and O. mine. Operators there were confronted with the possibility of loss from floods.

Albasius said that officials of the United Mine Workers sub district Number 6, had given assurance at a conference held in Columbus Friday that the pumps would continue to be named by union workers until the strike had been settled.

NEW YORK — Selling by professional interests was resumed at the opening of today's stock market. Developments over the week-end in their relation to the coal and railroad strikes seemed to encourage an extension of the short account. Coal-ers and transportation were only moderately lower however, pressure again being most marked among motors and their accessories. Key-stone Tire lost 1-8 points and Chandler Motors was heavy. The independent steels added variably to Saturday's rally under lead of Gulf States and Crucible but U. S. Steel was heavy. Foreign exchanges strengthened, presumably as a result of cables indicating that England and Germany are likely to arrive at an early agreement regarding German reparations. Pierce Arrow common and preferred, at declines of 1-4 and 2-8

WHEAT AND CORN ARE LOWER

Heavy Selling Results In Early Market Slump

CHICAGO — Big receipts here vimatized at 660 carloads led to a material decline in the price of wheat today during the early dealings. Bearish crop figures from Kansas and favorable weather in the spring wheat territory were additional berish factors. There was a general rush to sell and an evident lack of important buying. Initial quotations which ranged from 1-4 to 3-4 lower, September $1.01 1-2 to 1-8 and December $1.10 to 1-10 1-4, were followed by a material further setback. Corn and oats as well as wheat were depressed by large receipts. After opening unchanged to 5-8 lower,

September 63 to 64 1-4, the market underwent a moderate general sag. Oats started 1-8 to 3-8 lower. September 33 5-8 and rallied a little but then fell lower than before.

Provisions were without support despite an upturn in hog values.

STOCK AND GRAIN GOSSIP

Based on operations for the first half of the year, the American Telephone and Telegraph company is expected to earn 11 and a half per cent on capital stock in 1922.

The labor situation seems to be priming for the market just now. Tendency of prices is expected to be somewhat dominated by the occurrences recorded in the labor situation.

An irregular market is expected on account of the failure of anything definite to develop over Sunday with regard to the strike situation, but on re-openings buying for important accounts is expected in attractive issues.

The Otis Steel proposes to divide its common stock, increasing it from 500,000 shares to 1,000,000 of no par values. It is understood this proposed increase is for the providing funds for plant expansion.

Twenty Industrials, 95.78; off. 35. Twenty rails, 86.41; off. 08.

Reduction in tire prices by the Goodrich company last week is creating the impression that other companies will do the same, causing active selling in the rubber and tire issues and in the shares of companies directly related to the industries.

Chicago cash wheat was weak and two cents lower; corn weak to a half lower; oats, a half to three-fourths lower.

Prevailing apathy on the part of speculative wheat trade and prospects of increased hedging will be heavy in the future. Corn appears to possess more merit than other grains at the moment, but will probably reflect in moderate way any further weakness in wheat.

Hog market opened slow with few early sales; light butchers were five to ten cents higher than Saturday; $10.00 to $10.95 paid for choice lights. Receipts were 45,000.

Liverpool wheat close: Wheat five-eighths lower than Saturday's close.

CINCINNATI — Wheat, 1.08 1/2 @ 1.09 1/2. Corn, 1 1/2 @ 72. Oats, weak, 34 1/2 @ 41. Beans, 10 1/2 @ 11.25. Potatoes, 4.00 @ 4.25 per barrel.

LOS ANGELES — Will H. Hays, former postmaster general and now head of the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors' Association, here today for a week's study in the stronghold of the industry, said in an informal statement that the "principle of freedom upon which this nation was founded makes public censorship of press, pulpit, film or spoken word virtually an impossibility."

State-wide or national censorship, he said, "will fail in everything it undertakes. It has not been done successfully and never will be. Too many people who know nothing about the business are named on censorship boards. We are going to obviate the necessity of censorship."

NATIONAL ARMY TROOPS WIN NEW IRISH VICTORY

DUBLIN — National army troops have gained a fresh victory in West Ireland by capturing Ballyhanis, county Mayo, from the Republican irregulars, it was announced today.

The total number of casualties in the Limerick fighting has not been accurately estimated, although it is known that at least fifteen of the national army troops were killed and 87 wounded. It is generally believed that at least thirty of the irregulars lost their lives. The total number of casualties suffered by free state forces during the capture of Waterford was nine killed and nineteen wounded.

FACTS SOUGHT IN COAL SHORTAGE

Information Invited By C. C. Body From Consumers

PLAN TO PURCHASE COKE

Many Householders Unsupplied, Dealers Report.

Small industries whose coal supply is practically exhausted should get in touch with H. L. Breckenridge, chairman of the chamber of commerce fuel committee, at once, it was urged Monday.

Preparations are being made to supply these small concerns with the coal they need badly. Several small bakeries, laundries and similar establishments have less than a week's supply of coal on hand, it was said.

Possibility of bringing shipments of coke into the city were being considered by the fuel committee Monday. This would be somewhat higher in price than coal, but will be of a high quality and fill the demand for fuel, they assert.

SMALL USERS HIT

Large industries in the city have been preparing for an emergency and are ready to weather any weather not of too extended duration. Small plants and domestic consumers are not so well provided for, the committee's survey shows.

Letters were mailed to each coal dealer in the city Monday, requesting a complete survey of their probable assured supply and estimated domestic demand during each month until the first of the year.

There is a feeling that the amount of coal going into cellars this summer has been below normal and that the consumers are in no position to weather a coal shortage of any length.

Very small amounts of coal are on hand at the present time in the yards of local coal companies and should a run on the yards commence, the supply would be exhausted within a few days.

SUPPLY LIMITED

Only coal from non-union mines is coming into Lima and that in very small quantities when compared with the needs of the city, it is believed. Demands for the remainder of the year can be estimated from the sales in other years, the committee believes.

With the survey of the industrial and domestic situation practically completed, the committee will turn its efforts toward obtaining the amounts of coal necessary for supplying the city.

Just what steps will be taken will depend upon the action of the government to a great extent. If a fuel administrator is appointed for Ohio, the local committee will work with him.

SPEED TRAP NEAR DAYTON BROKEN UP; MOVE TO GET RETURN OF MONEY PAID IN

Motorists from Allen or nearby counties who have been fined for speeding on Brandy pike, near Dayton, have a chance to get their money back, if a receipt can be presented.

A refund on fines collected by "Squire" George C. French, Wayne, tp., has been ordered by Judge R. C. Patterson, of Montgomery-co.

H. Reed, a constable is said to have complied with "Squire" French in collecting money from motorists who have been fined on the recommendation of Paul Ackerman, secretary of the Dayton Automobile club.

Ackerman was instrumental in breaking up the speed trap by which car owners were held up and forced to pay $10 for their release. A speed trap was maintained and motorists proceeding at a lawful speed "framed," Ackerman told the court.

Reed, operating a motor cycle, ran the motorists down and served them with notices to appear in court. For $10, he would release them, it was charged.

The Lima Auto club will handle cases for return of money to motorists in this vicinity if they will leave their receipts at headquarters.

COMPANY G MEN DEPART MONDAY FOR CAMP PERRY

Departure of Company G, 148th Infantry, for Camp Perry, scheduled for Sunday was only partially effected Monday.

A sixteen men were sent in advance Sunday to make camp and prepare for coming of the remainder of the troops. At noon Monday the major detachment, under command of Captain O. A. Dupes, entrained over the E. & W. for Perry.

The company is composed of 80 officers and men. Mayor Frank Hume, commanding the second battalion left for Camp Sunday with his personal staff.

900 REGISTER, SECURE TRANSFERS IN TWO DAYS

Approximately 900 new registrations and transfers from one precinct to another were recorded in poll books in 70 Lima precincts Friday and Saturday.

Registration Saturday afternoon and evening exceeded in volume all recorded in the preceding period. Polling places closed at 10 p. m. city time. Reports made to the board of elections point to an average registration per precinct of slightly under 14 voters. This included transfers. Official count may show some increase.

Registration a year ago ran about three new voters to the precinct.

NORTHCLEFFE POISONED IN GERMANY, RUMORS IN LONDON NOW INDICATE

LONDON—Rumors that Viscount Northcliffe, "the thunderer," was poisoned in Germany during his incognito tour, were afloat in Fleet-street today.

The famous publisher's physicians are frankly puzzled over his complicated toxic condition. Associates say his recovery is unlikely, and even that he escapes death from the present illness, he will never again assume control of his publications, or wield dominant power in British politics.

Close friends of Northcliffe are inclined to discount the story that he was poisoned, pointing out that his presence in Germany was generally unknown until after his arrival back in England.

NITRO IS USED AT CRAWFORD STORE

able to work undisturbed in a pocket formed by surrounding buildings.

Paul W. Crawford first learned of the robbery when he entered the store and walked to the rear. He found the rear door unlocked.

"Did you open this door?" he asked of George Lindenbaugh, a window cleaner.

"No," he replied.

SAVE IS WRECKED. Crawford then stepped inside his office. The place was a wreck. Papers, chunks of iron and concrete were strewn about the floor. From an electric light socket a long wire was strung to the floor. The end was wrapped around the nickel-plated safe knob.

The door of the safe was bent and twisted. The inner lining containing the combination and tumblers was blown to pieces.

Police believe the job was pulled between 1 a. m. and 3 a. m. Monday. A night watchman employed by mechanics makes his last round towards midnight.

Sunday afternoon Crawford was in the store for a few minutes. Everything was intact.

Chief T. A. Lanker said he was working on the case, but has come to no definite conclusions.

IMPROVED FUND. Crawford found a noon Monday by Crawford may prove a valuable clue in running down the robbers. Search was made for the instrument on advice of a safe-salesman, who also said a paper tunnel could probably be located.

The syringe and funnel were used in placing the nitro-cyclohexene in the safe. The police now have the syringe. It was concealed in a desk. A few drops of nitro were still inside.

Search is being made for two mysterious men who came into the store Saturday afternoon. The men walked to the office and asked to see a city directory. After turning a few pages, one of them inquired where Scott-st was located and the two walked out.

Loss due to the robbery is protected by insurance. Crawford announced. Scores of persons visited the store Monday to view the shattered safe and see for themselves how the yegmen worked.

OFFICIALS IMPRESSED WITH AUTO-EDUCTOR

Conferences between Vaughn Miller, city engineer and C. A. Bingham, city manager, relative to the purchase of an auto-eductor were to be held Monday, Miller announced.

Inspection of one of the machines in Springfield Saturday showed that it will do all claimed for it and that there is no doubt but it will be a profitable addition to the city apparatus, Miller believes.

This machine flushes streets, cleans catch basins, is an emergency fire fighter, sprays trees and spreads rinders on the streets. It cleans catch basins at a mere fraction of cost at the present time, Bingham says.

Y. M. C. A. CAFETERIA WILL BE REOPENED

Reopening of the Y. M. C. A. Cafeteria was discussed Monday by the arrival of Miss Grace E. Darling, ton, graduate dietician. Organization of the staff will be started immediately. T. P. Pearson, general secretary of the "Y," announced.

The cafeteria has been redecorated with the addition of new furnishings will be one of the best "Y" dining rooms in the country, Pearson said. It will be opened in the near future.

INJUNCTION HEARING IN PIPE LINE CASE OPENS

Hearing of the matter of making permanent an injunction granted the Illinois Pipe Line company, restraining the county commissioners from straightening Brice-road in Amunda-tp, opened in common pleas court Monday.

The pipe line concern alleges that if the highway is straightened as planned by the commissioners, their lines will be on public property.

FIVE PERSONS KILLED WHEN AUTO HITS CAR

SAN FRANCISCO.—Five persons were killed and four were believed today to be dying as the result of a collision here last night between an automobile and a street car. The automobile after turning over burst into flames, burning several persons badly before they could be rescued. The dead were all of one family. Four—Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lynch, their four-year old daughter and three-year old nephew—were instantly killed.

PARTIAL VICTORY WON BY KEAN

Invisible Empire Candidate Nominated in Texas Primary.

HOT RUN-OFF IS EXPECTED

Bitter Fight May Be Waged By Defeated Men.

DALLAS, Tex.—Returns from Saturday's Texas Democratic primary tabulated at 11 o'clock and including 247 of the 250 counties in the state, 20 of them complete, gave:

For United States senator Mayfield 100,785; Ferguson 74,523; Culbertson 68,947. Owsley, 36,581; Henry 25,734.

DALLAS, Tex.—(United Press.)

—The Ku Klux Klan organization has won a partial victory in its first political campaign on a large scale, it was indicated today when Erie B. Mayfield, pro-Klan candidate for the nomination for United States senator from Texas, led his nearest opponent, James E. Ferguson, in the statewide Democratic primary, by a plurality of approximately 25,000.

However, opponents of the Klan pointed out that the Knights of the Invisible Empire could not claim a complete victory unless its candidate, Mayfield, won the run-off primary August 26.

KLAN VOTE HEAVY. Returns from Saturday's primary, incomplete, show that Klan candidates polled approximately 118,000 votes in senatorial race, while the combined anti-Klan vote tallied over 200,000, the anti-Klan vote being split among four candidates.

Returns from 234 of the 250 counties in the state tabulated today, 18 of them complete, give Mayfield 93,537; James E. Ferguson anti-Klan 68,196; Charles A. Culbertson anti-Klan, 57,745; Ernie B. Mayfield, anti-Klan, 17,145; Clarence F. Owsley, anti-Klan, 35,333; Robert L. Henry, 24,858.

Governor Pat Neff has been renominated and with a majority that points to his re-election without the necessity of a run-off in the second primary.

James E. Ferguson, long a storm center in Texas politics, promises to again figure in this state's affairs. The former governor waged a strenuous campaign against the Klan. He was the only anti-prohibitionist candidate in any of the major contests and declared strong opposition to the present federal reserve system.

Should Mayfield and Ferguson enter the run-off race, this state of rock-ribbed Democracy is expected to see one of the hottest campaigns and hardest fought races in history.

Mayfield, who did not mention the Ku Klux Klan in any of his utterances, received 90 per cent of that vote.

On the other hand, Robert L. Henry, declaring "he carried the fiery cross in one hand and an American flag in the other," ran a poor last. This was explained by Mayfield being endorsed at a secret meeting of high Klan officials at Austin recently and the word being passed down by them that Mayfield was "the man."

Culbertson was the first senatorial candidate to come out flatly against the Klan and waged a strenuous fight on the masked secret order.

FINED FOR DRUNKENNESS; DENIES FIGHTING CHARGE

Charges of intoxication and fighting were lodged Monday in police court against Carl Stratton, 22, of 121 W. North-st, arrested at the circus Saturday night on N. West-st. He was in a scuffle with Sergeant Edwards when the latter arrested him, police say.

Stratton denied fighting and will stand trial Wednesday at 1:30 p. m. He is out on $25 bond.

MRS. WALTER SCOTT'S MOTHER TAKEN IN DEATH

Mrs. Viola E. Gates, 76, mother of Mrs. Walter Scott, died at the Scott home, 566 W. Spring-st, Sunday at 10 p. m., after an illness since Friday, when she was stricken by apoplexy.

She was born in New Hampshire. Surviving, besides Mrs. Scott, is a son, W. F. Gates, Independence, Kansas. He is connected with the Buckeye Pipe Line company.

Funeral services will be held Wednesday at 10 a. m. at the Scott residence. Interment in Woodlawn.

PHONE WORK STARTED

Work on the new private telephone exchange at police headquarters was started Monday. Preparations for wires into the building were made by breaking a hole in the sidewalk.

ORDERED OUT OF TOWN

Characterized by police as a "maniac" and "he-flapper," Bennett Long, 26, Louisville, Ky., was ordered out of the city by Acting Criminal Judge Botkin. He was arrested at High and Elizabeth-sts after addressing insulting remarks to passersby, police say.

DONATES $800.00

NEW YORK.—Eight hundred thousand dollars of the million dollar legacy. Charles Garland didn't want to be donated to the American fund for public service, according to official announcement by Walter Nelles, attorney for the Greenwich Village organization.

KILLED IN CRASH

BEAVER FALLS, Pa.—Charles A. Thomas, Canton, and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Louis Thomas, were killed when their automobile overturned on Steffen Hill.

MAN FALLS DEAD

CELEINA.—Lewis Bernard, 62, fell dead at his home near North Star, in Mercer-co, from heart trouble, following an attack of influenza.

RUSSIAN VIOLINIST IN PROGRAM CLASSICS AT ROTARY CLUB LUNCHEON

For 45 minutes Zimow, Russian violinist, held the members of the Rotary club spellbound at their luncheon Monday noon at the Hotel Noyval.

A program of selections ranging from the most difficult to the simple strains of "My Old Kentucky Home," was given with a technique seen but seldom. He was assisted by Mademoiselle Schapire, pianist.

This was the first American recital of the Russian artist who, only a few short months ago, was a member of a refugee gypsy band in Russia, wondering where his next meal was to come from.

Botanians agreed that he is one of the greatest violinists ever heard in the city and predicted that he would become one of the leaders in musical circles.

Monday was Rotary "Guest Day" and the visitors were given the opportunity to speak for a few minutes. More than a dozen responded to the invitation, telling of their experiences. A number of Rotarians from other cities were present.

A letter from Mrs. Warren G. Harding was read in which the thanks of herself and the President were expressed to the Lima Rotarians for the remembrance bouquet given them at Marion July 4.

POWER MEN HERE

Survey of City Lighting System Started Monday.

While representatives of the Ohio Power Co. are in the city making a survey of the municipal lighting system, a definite proposal will not be made until next Monday. H. G. Sterling, East Liverpool, said.

This survey is being made to determine the amount of power required by the city for the conveyance and other light systems and to set a rate at which the power can be supplied.

Other minor details of the proposed franchise whereby Lima will obtain large quantities of power for industrial development may also be cleared up, city officials announced.

No further developments have been seen in the street railway franchise sought by the proposed Lima Street Railway Co., D. J. Cable, said. Meetings with the city may be held later in the week, but none are now scheduled, it was announced.

SEARCH FOR BOY

Officials Fear Mine Operators Son Is Kidnapped.

CADIZ.—(United Press.)—Authorities of three counties scoured the countryside today for Oliver S. Monazza, 17, son of A. Monazza, wealthy retired mine operator, who disappeared yesterday.

Police said the boy had been abducted by blackhanded spurs officers to make a thorough search following announcement by the father that he had received several threatening letters. Monazza, in the letters, was called upon to turn over a large sum of money to the writer, he told authorities.

Shortly before his disappearance, it was learned, Monazza drew $1,000 from a bank in Adams, his home.

Authorities of Harrison, Jefferson and Belmont, all coal mining counties, had joined in the search today.

BRENTLINGER TRIAL SET FOR JULY 31, IN RUM CASE

Trial for Eli Brentlinger, cafe proprietor, 233 N. Central-ave, arrested Saturday by police in a raid following a complaint that he had been selling intoxicating liquor, will be held July 31, in criminal court.

Brentlinger's attorney entered a plea of not guilty for him Monday in criminal court. Bond of $1,000 was furnished.

Return on the search warrant discloses that nine three ounce bottles of liquor was found. Police declare it amounts in all to about three quarts.

B. & O. STRIKERS MAY MAKE SEPARATE CONTRACT

WINES AND BEER ARE FAVORED

Literary Digest Announces Results of Straw Vote.

NEW YORK.—(Special.)—With

more than 200,000 votes received in a nation-wide poll on the question of prohibition and the soldiers' bonus, the Literary Digest, in its current issue, makes public the following results:

Those in favor of strict enforcement of the eighteenth amendment and the Volstead law, 76,597.

Those in favor of the modification of the Volstead law to permit light wines and beer, 65,311.

Those in favor of repealing the prohibition amendment, 45,646.

Those in favor of a Federal bonus for all soldiers and sailors who wore the uniform during the World War, 102,978.

Those opposed to such a Federal bonus, 102,370.

The returns in the second week of the poll more than doubled those of the first week and apparently showed a slight decrease in the wet sentiment.

OPPOSED TO SALOON

It also would appear that the voters are opposed in the main to the return of the "wide open" days before the passage of any prohibition amendment.

A detailed tabulation of the vote in the Middle West states shows the following in dry, moist and wet strength, respectively:

Ohio: 6,340, 4,562, 1,942.
Indiana: 215, 114, 55.
Illinois: 13,321, 15,925, 8,959.
Michigan: 268, 177, 61.
Kentucky: 27, 25, 28.
Tennessee: 42, 17, 10.
West Virginia: 18, 20, 4.

In the letters received by the Literary Digest there appears common protest to the saloon and all that it stood for. Certain writers suggest laws such as are in force in Quebec and British Columbia, where in the absence of saloons citizens may buy what they wish from Governmental stores.

EXPECTS FREEDOM

Mrs. Obenchain Plans to Re-marry Former Husband.

LOS ANGELES.—(Associated Press.)—Arguments to the jury were begun here today in the second trial of Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain for the murder of her husband, J. Edgar Obenchain, young broker.

Mrs. Obenchain has expressed herself as confident of acquittal, so confident she declared, that she already had begun packing her possessions in preparation for leaving the county jail where she has been a prisoner nearly a year.

That she said she was going back to her former husband, Ralph Obenchain, and a home he was preparing for her in Evanston, Ill.

Several months ago, Obenchain while acting as her attorney, obtained a license here to remarry her but the authorities refused to permit a wedding.

Forgery jobs that have been brought to light in the last several weeks are not the work of one man but of many, according to police. No likeness in the manner of drawing up the checks is seen and descriptions of the passers are not alike.

Consideration of the establishment of a county patrol system will be the principal subject for discussion at a meeting of the Allen-co Good Roads council, called for Monday night at the Chamber of Commerce.

MINE OPERATION IS STARTED

Mine Workers already has informed the governor, and permission will not be given in Michigan until a national agreement between operators and miners has been reached.

Governor Groesbeck was prepared to offer every inducement to the miners to obtain consideration of his proposals but indicated that in case no agreement can be reached, he would undertake direction of the mine and attempt to produce coal.

Prior to his departure the governor declared that the coal shortage is becoming too acute in Michigan to permit further delay in bringing about resumption of operations.

STRIKE THREATENED

BRIDGEPORT, O.—(United Press.)—The walking out of about 40 maintenance men employed by mines at Providence and Maynard, both in Belmont-co, was seen today as a drastic protest against the movement of state troops into mine territory.

C. Albain, arbitration commissioner of the Pittsburgh Yola Operators' Association, declared the action of the pump men did not have the sanction of the union and that it constituted a violation of the agreement between the United Mine Workers' sub district officials and the operators. He said the maintenance men walked out only in isolated cases and the majority of the men were at work. Those who were on strike he said, probably will return to work at the request of mine workers' officials today.

Funny men were reported out at the Clark mines and a few at the Y and O mine. Operators there were confronted with the possibility of loss from floods.

Albain said that officials of the United Mine Workers sub district Number 5, had given assurance at a conference held in Columbus Friday that the pumps would continue to be named by union workers until the strike had been settled.

The encampment is for members of the fifth district, including Ohio, West Virginia, Kentucky and Tennessee.

Canshadow, Charleston, W. Va.; Colonel S. O. Williams, Columbus; Colonel John Dick, Cleveland, and Colonel Charles G. Allhoff, Dayton.

ROBBERY ATTEMPTS IN TWO PLACES FAILURE

Two unsuccessful robbery attempts were reported Monday to police. The first, an entrance by youths by springing a lock on a rear door, came from the J. C. Atkinson fruit store, 460 S. Main-st. Nothing was missing.

SHORT SHAVINGS

Earl Smith called on a friend in the composing room of a printing plant at Wapakoneta. The room was lighted with lights that made everything purple. He didn't notice that, and pitched a sandwich into a waste basket. "Lights or no lights, I gag at purple bread and meat in a sandwich."

County Commissioner John W. Thompson records the instance of a merchant who doesn't let business interfere with pleasure. Thompson passed the merchant's store.

He stopped to read a sign on the door. It said, "closed for ten days. On a fishing trip."

Joe Hartline rushed to the dock in Cleveland to board a boat for Buffalo. He boarded one labeled "City of Buffalo."

A while later he discovered that he was bound for Toledo. "City of Buffalo," he was told, "is the name of the boat, and not where it is going."

Earl Miller, telegraph operator, hired a novice to put a tire on his auto. The near-mechanic was puzzled by his inability to inflate the tire after he put it on. "No wonder you can't blow it up," said Miller. "The inner tube is hanging on the wall."

"Some service, I'd call it," commented Albert Peltier, book binder, when a floral spray he had ordered as head of a lodge to be sent from Springfield to the home of a deceased member of the lodge in a nearby town.

"The spray was delivered at my home here," Peltier said, "several hours after the funeral had been held. And I was particularly careful to direct that the bill be sent me and the flowers to the home of the dead man. But I also received the bill. Both have been sent back to Springfield," Peltier said.

RADIO FOR BLIND--ONE OF ITS MANY BENEFITS

"End Loss" In Inductance Coils May Prevent Reception of Signals

By PAUL F. GODLEY

America's Foremost Radio Authority

"End loss" in radio coils is something which all amateurs who construct their own sets will need to guard against.

It is a loss which may be so great as to completely prevent reception of signals on a certain wave length.

A watch should be kept for these effects, not only in the apparatus which is built at home, but also in that which is purchased, for even manufacturers do not always properly guard against it.

In addition to having inductance, all inductance coils possess capacity. The capacity of coil depends upon its diameter, the kind of insulation on the wire, the nature of the impregnating varnish and the nature of the supporting form. It is far greater on coils of the unused portion and the capacity of the coil as a whole.

If these values happen to give to the unused part of the coil a wave length equal approximately to the wave at which reception is desired a great part of the received currents will be absorbed by the unused circuit. Cases have been known where 70 per cent of the total energy was wasted in this way.

These same effects are encountered when coils are used, or in, the magnetic field of coils actually being used in circuit. The effect may be demonstrated by placing a coil near your receiver circuit.

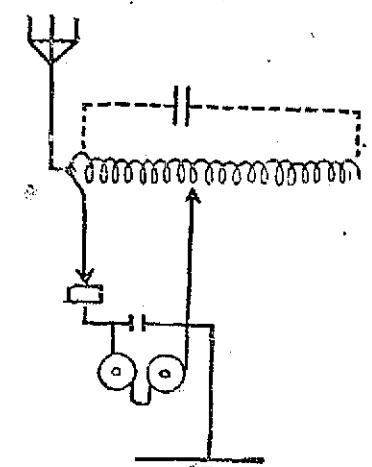

Connect a small variable condenser across the terminals of the coil. Vary the condenser and note that at a certain point—if the values of the coil and condenser are the proper ones—the signals will disappear.

If the coupling between the test coil and the receiver is very weak, these effects will not be marked. If it is very close, which is the condition when only a part of the windings of a coil are in use, the effects will be more marked.

CONNECTIONS
The connection of switch contacts and wiring leads to coil will greatly increase its capacity. For this reason considerable care in design is required in all radio sets.

These receivers which cover the smallest band of wave lengths are usually more efficient. This is not necessarily true, however, for means have been found of offsetting these effects even where great ranges are to be covered.

In the diagram a coil is shown, tuned for reception of 200-meter waves. The coil capacity, represented by the condenser set across the terminals, together with the coil inductance, also is tuned to 200 meters. The greater portion of the coil's energy is absorbed by the unused section.

HOW COIL CAPACITY AFFECTS A RADIO SET.

Having more than one layer of wire than on coils which have only a single layer.

WASTE ENERGY
If only a portion of a coil of wire is used, the remainder will have a certain fundamental frequency or wave length, due to the inductance

There is not the slightest sign of its use. It actually vanishes from sight and the most beautiful skin will not produce the least shininess or crassness of the skin.

It is absolutely harmless and will neither produce nor stimulate the growth of hair. Furthermore, you will find it the most perfect base for powder. Within twenty-four hours this wonderful combination called Howland's Buttermilk Cream will work a marvelous transformation. One of the benefits attributable to radio is the entertainment it is bringing to the blind. ## Why Grow Old Before Your Time?

It isn't years alone that make one old. Many folks are younger at 70 than others are at 50. A lame back, stiff, aching joints, rheumatic pains, bad eyesight, and bladder irregularities are often due to kidney weakness and not advancing years. Don't let weak kidneys age you. Use Doan's Kidney Pills. Doan's have made life more comfortable for thousands of elderly folks. Ask your neighbor!

Here's a Lima Case

Mrs. C. Collins, 345 E. North St., says: "I had trouble with my kidneys and my back felt as if it would break. I was all tired out and my kidneys acted too freely. I was bothered with bladder disorder and was restless at night. I felt so dizzy I could scarcely keep on my feet. Doan's Kidney Pills bought at Vorkamps' Drug Store rid me of the backache and my kidneys acted normally."

FLEES LIMA TO ESCAPE HAY FEVER; VOGEL IS IN HOSPITAL IN MICHIGAN

Hay fever is believed to have caused the disappearance of Fred C. Vogel, 70, former employee of the L. E. & W. Railroad shops here, who has been located in a Benton Harbor, Mich., hospital where he is suffering from the effects of a street car accident.

A broken hip and shoulder are causing the man to be confined, according to telephone information given Lima Masons Sunday.

Vogel, who is a Mason, was injured in Benton Harbor Friday. A Masonic identification card enabled authorities there to notify Lima relatives who had been worried over his mysterious departure on July 10.

The theory is advanced that Vogel desired to go to Michigan for relief from hay fever while the lack of work during the strike period here afforded him the opportunity.

He did not inform his wife of his intentions. Vogel is deaf. Friends who discussed his health with his wife, declare that the wife often objected to Vogel going places without being attended, for this reason.

Wilbur Sharritts and John Sharritts, relatives of Vogel, left for Benton Harbor Sunday to attend the injured man.

Belief is expressed here that there is no question about Vogel having himself endorsed his pay check for some $80 which was cashed at the First National Bank in Lima on the day of his disappearance.

BIG PROBLEMS AHEAD

BY and large, the biggest thing now demanding final action by the city commission is the disposition of the problem of sewage disposal. Threatened for years by the state board of health with intervention, to prevent further pollution of Ottawa river with city sewage, sanitary and storm, previous administrations made extraordinary effort to get something started in the way of providing a disposal station and intercepting sewers.

Success was lacking. The new city commission, realizing that action was imperative, tackled the problem as one of the first to come before that body. Everything moved smoothly until it came to the point of deciding upon a type of disposal system. The wrangle that has developed is delaying action.

The state board of health isn't satisfied with the proposed direct oxidation plan. Opposition has developed. Money is being spent in investigations that will probably reveal nothing beyond what is already known. In addition, the delay is serious. Pollution of the river water is awful. The stench is terrible in hot weather. It is a black eye for the city. Strangers are appalled. They cannot understand why such a condition is permitted to exist. Quick action is the need of the hour.

Then there is the power question, the street railway franchise and, also important from the standpoint of progress, disposition of numerous court suits, most of which are a heritage from previous administrations.

IN ETERNAL ICE

WOULD you like to get away from civilization and heat and join Road Amundsen, explorer, first on his airplane flight to the North Pole, then drifting seven years in the schooner Maud locked in the Arctic ice?

We cannot go with Amundsen, but from his life we can learn something of tremendous advantage to each of us—that no obstacle is great enough to keep us from our goal if we refuse to become discouraged and if we keep everlastingly after what we want.

You wonder who puts up the money for these polar trips. It will interest you to know that Amundsen is not a millionaire and that it has taken him 17 years to get the funds to finance the seven-year trip aboard the schooner Maud.

Most of us would have quit after being turned down for a few years. That's why most of us are failures. Failure usually is just an alibi name for quitter. And most men lose heart and "throw the sponge" on the very eve of success.

Maybe you have wondered if these polar exploration trips are worth while. Are they sensible investments?

On one of his trips, in 1903, Amundsen proved that the north magnetic pole is not a fixed locality like a post driven into the ground, but that it probably moves continually.

That is valuable knowledge, typical of what is learned from each trip into the Frozen North.

Amundsen's present trip will seek, chiefly, knowledge about the weather and what makes it. That's well worth while—for we talk more about the weather than anything else, yet know very little about what causes its eccentricities.

FAIR BOARD DECIDES

MEMBERS of the Allen-co fair board, realizing the necessity of a move in some direction in the important matter of providing a home for the county fair after the present year, has decided to ask the voters of the county for a bond issue of $85,000.

The proposition will be submitted in the November election. The board is forced to action. Either the present ground must be purchased, or a new location sought elsewhere. Either will cost a lot of money. However, if the fair is to be continued as a county institution, something must be done.

Lease on the present grounds, owned by the Lima Driving Park association, expires early in 1923. The grounds are to be sold, or platted into lots and disposed of piecemeal. It is understood that a new lease cannot be had. That makes action necessary.

In these latter days folks do not take kindly to bond issues and the success of the one proposed to make assured a continuance of the county fair is problematical. However, it is believed that it can be made a success with the proper effort. There is little doubt but that the farm bureau, the granges and residents generally of the country districts will approve it.

If the farmers favor the plan, there is no good reason why citizens of Lima should refuse to support the proposition. But a bond issue of $85,000 will not be easy. Originators of the plan must realize that there is a big job ahead. It is going to require hard work, but it can be done.

(It has been figured that the actual chemical constituents of the human body could be bought for 98 cents.)

Ninety-eight cents for the sugar and lime,
Water and acid and fat
Which make up the body; well, certainly I'm

A pretty cheap product at that!
One ought to be humbled by figures like those.

One ought to feel awfully small,
But deep in the heart of him every man knows
The figures mean nothing at all.

Great Rembrandt paid little for canvas and paint,
But think what his pictures are

And greater is He who makes sinner and saint
From but a small handful of earth.

The cost of materials isn't so much
(But ninety-eight cents for the whole),
But think of the deft and miraculous touch
That mingles mind, body and soul.

The work of the Maker is marvelous quite
In fashioning mortals of clay,
But seldom we treat His good handiwork right
And therefore His plan goes astray.

Our value depends on the things that we do
With natural powers immense,
Which makes us doubt sometimes if I or if you
Are worth even ninety-eight cents!

YOUNGEST WOMAN LAWYER IN U. S.

SAVANNAH, Ga.—(Special.)—Miss Theima Lenore Harrell of Savannah probably is the youngest full-fledged woman lawyer in the United States.

Miss Harrell has just been admitted to the Georgia bar after passing the bar examination. Miss Harrell, who is 17, graduated from high school here a year ago and has since studied under a local firm of attorneys.

The young lawyerette will attend Columbia University before heading out her shingle, she says.

Don't Spoil Your Child's Hair By Washing It

—When you wash your child's hair be careful what you use. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Multisulfated coconut oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces.

Two or three teaspoonfuls of Multisulfated in a cup of glass with a little warm water is all that is required. Simply moisten the hair with water, and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly, and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, bright, fluffy, wavy and easy to handle. Besides, it loosens and takes out every particle of dust, dirt and dandruff. You can get Multisulfated at any drug store, and a few ounces will last everyone in the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Multisulfated.

False Claims.

WE hope there is no Mother who thinks she can treat her sick baby without calling in a Physician, or with remedies that she uses for herself.

Most Mothers know that Baby requires remedies especially prepared for babies, yet there are some who think that what is good enough for them is good enough for Baby, and it is to these Mothers we appeal to give nothing to their babies that is not specially prepared for babies or recommended by their Physician.

False claims may kill, but false claims can never restore your child.

For over thirty years Fletcher's Castoria has been aiding in the reduction of the deaths among infants as Mothers have become more and more acquainted with it. Always keep it in the house.

Children Cry For Fletcher's CASTORIA

Mothers Must Use Care.

Why do we so often call your attention to imitations of Fletcher's Castoria? Because it is a baby's medicine and imitations are always dangerous, particularly imitations of a remedy for infants.

Your druggist may not keep an imitation but they are to be found on drug-store shelves. Reliable druggists think only of the welfare of their customers. The other kind only of the greater profit to be made on imitations.

Your own judgment tells you that Fletcher's Castoria having for over thirty years at great expense held up its reputation, must jealously guard it. Then, it follows that this company must use the very best of material. Most employ experts in the selection of the herbs. Must retain skilled chemists in its manufacture.

Your same good judgment must tell you that these irresponsible imitators are trading on your credulity and the reputation built up by Mr. Fletcher, during all these years, for his Castoria.

RULES FOR BATHERS

DR. BISHOP'S ADVICE
These are the days when every available bathing beach and swimming hole is dotted with all kinds of people who desire to escape the heat. Every summer as the crowds that frequent the more popular beaches grow larger and larger, there are cases of infection that may be traced to bathing in polluted water.

The water at the beaches may be especially unclean at certain times, when there is little wind and the lake currents are not strong. Also, the individuals who frequent the beaches add some elements of contamination to the common bath.

If the water thus contaminated by tens of thousands of human bodies gains entrance into the nose, ears, eyes and throats of bathers, or is swallowed by them or breathed into their lungs, infection may follow, particularly if the physical resistance of the bathers is lowered, favoring infection.

Where the sickness takes the form of bronchitis, it may be due to extension of the infection from the nose or throat or because the water has been drawn deeply into the lungs.

Infection may also occur on the external skin, in the form of boils, when the natural protective oil of the skin has been removed by prolonged soaking in the water by friction, or when the skin has been injured by the sun.

A few rules to observe when bathing at public beaches or swimming pools are:

Scottie read the message slowly and then lifted amazed eyes to the other's face.

"Man, but we've been blind!" he exclaimed. "You say that there's daylight ahead? I'm thinking that a red and fearsome dawn!"

After dispatching Scottie to the village to transmit the wire, Miles re-entered the house and ascended to the second floor. The door of Roger's store room did not yield when he turned the knob.

As he started down the hall Miss Drake appeared.

"We shall not need you, William," she announced. "My brother is subject to these heart attacks and he is quite all right now, but of course he will not come down to dinner!"

An hour passed and Hobart Drake returned from the city. Miles could scarcely restrain his impatience as he helped Carter to serve dinner, but the occasional glimpses he stole at the financier's face told him nothing. It was inscrutable and when the telephone rang he rose with calm deliberation.

"That was Zorn," he announced on his return. "He assured me that he was making definite progress."

His tone had lacked conviction on and Andrew glanced up with a sneer. "Sounds good but doesn't mean anything!" he commented. "Isn't that what the police always give out to the newspapers when they're stumped?"

ing untoward had occurred to break the brooding stillness of the house when all at once a woman's shriek rang out. The detective rushed from his room and down the stairs but just as he reached the floor below another door was flung wide in his face and a man dashed out, almost colliding with him.

Miles halted for an instant, taken aback by sheer surprise for the opened door was that of Roger's store room and the man who had emerged was Andrew! He was without coat or waistcoat, his sleeves rolled back and his shirt and collar grimy with dust, a smudge of which lay across his cheek giving a grotesque twisted expression to his features.

"What's happened?" he roared. "Stop that yowling, Hitty, and stand aside!"

Miles became aware that a thin, reedy wall had succeeded the shriek and shaking off the spell which had held him transfixed, he hastened down the hall.

At the head of the main staircase the maid was kneeling before a recumbent form wringing her hands and sobbing hysterically, but Andrew seized her arm and thrust her violently aside.

"Roger, old man!—Here, pull yourself together, Hitty, and call Carter or William!"

So Andrew had not consciously noted that momentary encounter! The detective stepped forward.

"What is it, sir? Oh, is Mr. Roger ill? Can I be of any assistance?"

"Yes. Help me carry him to his room and then get my sister. No need to call a doctor; he's had these attacks before and I know how to bring him around."

He placed his strong arms about the shoulders of the unconscious man and Miles supported the knees while Hitty ran ahead to open the door. Between them they got Roger Drake into his room and upon the bed where he lay breathing astorously.

Miles slipped out into the garden where he found Scottie at work among the rose bushes.

"What is it, lad?" The latter straightened. "Has something come off at last?"

"Something that has all but taken me off my feet. Scottie! It may be a waiting game for a few days more but there's daylight ahead!—Got a pencil?" He pulled a notebook from his pocket, and, tearing out a page, he scribbled hastily upon it while his colleague waited in silence.

HOW PHIL FROG STOLE DOCTOR'S PULLERS

By OLIVE ROBERTS BARTON

He grabbed them in his mouth and made a big dive into Ripple Creek.

"Ow, oh, ouch!" Marty Mink was yelling when Dr. Snuffles and the Twins knocked on his front door. Doctor? C-c-come on in."

The three of them walked into Marty's muddy hallway. Marty, you know, lives in the bank of Ripple Creek, or rather in it.

Before Nancy had time to close the door, Phil Frog put his toe in the crack.

"Hey!" he cried. "You don't mind if I come too, do you?"

"What do you want to come for, Phillip?" asked Nick. "Of course, you're safe as long as Marty has a fish-bone in his throat because he can't eat anything.

"But he hasn't had a meal for hours and hours, and the minute Dr. Snuffles pulls out the fish-bone Marty will begin to look for something to eat. And he likes frogs better than anything."

Phil grinned.

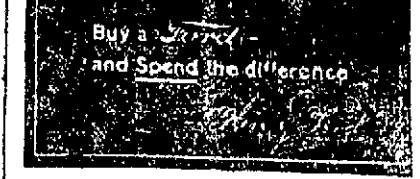

"Yes, that's so," he agreed. "But I'm curious. I'd like to see how you pull out fish-bones."

"Well, come along then," said Nick.

"Ow, oh, ouch," moaned Marty. Dr. Snuffles took out his pullers

That Curious Device for Making Fire

It was only seventy-five years ago that a woman of the Middle West wrote to her cousin in New York:

"Last winter I was told of a curious new device for making fire. It consisted of small splinters of wood with tips of some substance that bursts into flame when rubbed on a rough surface. If you can procure some of them for me I shall be grateful."

Matches were in general use in Europe for years before they were seen in this country. There was no means for spreading such news rapidly.

Today, the new invention that contributes to comfort or convenience is quickly known the country over. Advertising conveys the information. The farmer's wife in Texas or Idaho is as well posted on these things as the city woman of the East.

HERMAN HIATT, MISS GORMAN ARE MARRIED

THE marriage of Miss Elizabeth Pauline Gorman, daughter of Mrs. Mary Gorman, 970 Brice-ave, and Herman Hiatt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hiatt, 508 W. Elm-st, took place Monday at 10:30 a. m. at the parochial residence of St. Rose Catholic church.

Rev. Father M. T. Bouschere, assistant pastor of St. Rose Catholic church, read the marriage service.

The bride was attired in a handsome creation of midnight blue canton crepe, with a hat of pale orchid. She wore a corsage of bride's roses and sweet peas.

Miss Alleen Killen, Columbus Grove, niece of the bride, was bridesmaid. Miss Killen wore a creation of deep rose crepe knit, with a small white hat.

Charles Gorman, brother of the bride, was best man.

Breakfast for members of the two families was served, following the wedding, at the home of the bride's mother. Rooms were decorated with garden flowers of varied hues and bowls of these summer blooms added an artistic decorative note to the breakfast.

Mr. Hiatt and his bride left at noon for a trip to Davenport, Iowa, and will later visit New York. They will receive their friends at the home of the bride's mother, after August 10.

The bride had been until a month ago, stenographer in the B. & O. Railroad general offices here. She has a wide circle of admiring friends who will be interested to know of her marriage. With her mother, she moved to Lima from Columbus Grove about ten years ago.

Mr. Hiatt was a former employee of The Lima News and is now service man for the Lithograph Co.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Long, Springfield, who have a delightful summer home at Lakeview, entertained a party of Lima folk, who motored to the Indian Lake summer place Sunday. A picnic dinner was enjoyed and the trip home was made in the pleasant evening. At Lakeview, water sports were enjoyed.

Enjoying the charming hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. Long were Mr. and Mrs. William H. Howell, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hawisher, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer H. May, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. W. Miller, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Corner, Mrs. S. B. McGinnis and Miss Garnet Howell.

Mrs. H. W. Snook, 915 Ritchie-ave, was given a most delightful surprise Sunday in honor of her birthday anniversary. Mrs. Snook was driven several miles into the country upon pretense of visiting at the home of a friend, but at the right moment, Mr. Snook planned a hasty return.

Upon entering her home, Mrs. Snook was enthusiastically received. A chicken dinner was served, the menu having been arranged by women of the happy company. Sweet peas and gladioli decorated the tables and the dinner proved most pleasant.

In the party were Mr. and Mrs. H. Kollars, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Armstrong and son Donald, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Apple and niece, Helen, Miss, of Bellevue, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Reams, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ganz and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Fisher.

Uriah Fox, residing near Lima, on R. F. D. No. 1, was extended a surprise party at his home the past week, when friends and neighbors assembled to celebrate his birthday anniversary. Music and games were enjoyed and at 10 o'clock a buffet supper was served.

In the party which wished Mr. Fox many more happy birthdays were Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cleveland, Mrs. Baldwin, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fox, Mrs. Iva Pregler, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Fox, Mr. and Mrs. Beecher Fox, Mrs. William Loughridge and two sons, Messrs. Warren, Haver, Dallas and Glen Fox, Roy Cleveland, Herman, Glen, Odus and Lester Fox, Wilbur, Freeman, Esmer, Howard, Counterman, Eli Neehling, Harry Keller, Guren Evick, Hugh Baker and Ivan Sellers, the Misses Gwendolyn Reiff, Lola and Eleanor Fox, Ruth Sellers, Gladys Bickel, Susie and Marie Sullivan, Marie Granstaff, Koneta Blakely, Mildred Rafay, Genevieve Worthington, Thelma Cleveland, Marguerite Spain and Helen Middleton.

Mrs. Frank Klingler will extend the hospitality of her country home to the Dorcas circle of Zion Lutheran church, Thursday, at an all-day meeting. At a recent meeting of the circle, the women sewed, the receipts for the work being turned into the treasury. The business session took place on Monday, at which time the meeting was held last Thursday.

Miss Bertha Meyer, 839 S. Broadway, gave a farewell party at her home, Friday evening, inviting a number of young people who have had the privilege of meeting her guest, Miss Agnes Kublat, Pittsburgh, during her visit here. Miss Kublat returned Sunday to her home in Pittsburgh.

Violates "Agreement With Himself," Man Surrenders to Police

Sung by remorse that he had violated a "gentleman's agreement" with himself never to drink again, Raymond Donaldson, 30, of 401 E. Market-st, surrendered voluntarily to police.

A year ago, the penitent admitted Monday in criminal court, he "wrestled" with the little tips that lurk in spirituous liquor and determined, he said that he wanted to live a while longer.

A friend met him. With money he gave him the friend bought three bottles of "jake," Donaldson said. Becoming drunk, he went home, sat on the door step and dozed. He determined to surrender.

Police met him in front of headquarters. He was held over Sunday and arraigned before Acting Criminal Judge Botkin and a $15 fine levied. Donaldson was given a chance to work at his job in Findlay and earn the money.

L. W. Barnett Draws Fine of $150 in Liquor Case; Two Others Win Release

State's evidence was turned by two of a trio of men captured Saturday night by police and charged with liquor possession. L. W. Barnett, 24, of 230 S. Elizabeth-st, was fined $150 in criminal court Monday on a charge preferred in an affidavit sworn to by Harold Duncan, 23, Los Angeles and William Howard, 30, Louisville, Ky., colored showmen with the Al Barnes circus.

Barnett declared a friend present with him a half gallon of liquor for medicinal purposes and he attempted to sell it to the negroes. Police say they interfered with the sale and arrested the three. The strangers were released after giving the information police asked.

Barnett was given until August 10 to pay $100 of the fine. If he pays by that time, the court ruled, the remaining $50 will be suspended. He was released.

Commission to Consider Salary Boost Tonight

Salary increases tabled at the last meeting of the city commission will be considered Monday night. An attempt will be made to pass the ordinance.

C. A. Bingham, city manager, believes that the commission will favor the increase as soon as they hear the reasons for them, especially as they have already been authorized in the budget.

Increase totaling $2,500 are proposed by the ordinance and affects a number of city officials, including the chief of police.

LEARN A WORD A DAY

TODAY'S word is LULL. It's pronounced lul. with the u short.

It means—to soothe to rest; to quiet; or, as an intransitive verb, to become gradually calm. It may also be used as a noun, as "the lull before the storm."

It is akin to the German "lullen," the Danish "lulle," and the Swedish "lulla," all imitative of low and soothing sounds.

It's used like this: "He was lulled to sleep by soft music."

EDNA WALLACE HOPPER SHE'S 62. WOULD YOU BELIEVE IT?

LOS ANGELES—Edna Wallace Hopper is telling the world how to be a flapper at 62. She ought to know. For she's 62, looks 20, weighs 58 pounds, wears knee-length skirts, and hasn't a bit of gray in her bobbed brown hair.

"I'm touring the country," Miss Hopper says, "to impress on American women that they can, by taking care, extend the appearance and spirit of their 'teens over into the fifties and sixties. I use myself as the example, and my message is chiefly for the flapper to encourage her in her sensible vanity."

Miss Hopper who made her stage debut in 1891 six months ago got tired of her old face and had a surgeon provide a new one by an operation to remove sag by stretching.

"Despite all my care, a few wrinkles had appeared," she said.

Bingham Gets License Ordinances from Other Cities for Comparison

License ordinances from Cincinnati and several other cities have been received by C. A. Bingham, city manager, in response to a request sent out last week.

These ordinances will be studied and their provisions compared to those of the proposed ordinance for Lima. It is hoped a more satisfactory ordinance can be obtained for Lima, Bingham said.

When the proposed ordinance came up for consideration before the city commission, there was such a storm of protest that it was immediately dropped.

It is planned to eliminate the objectionable features of the proposed law so as to permit its early passage.

Chanticleer Disturbs Slumber; Pays With Life

The "chicken yard murder" is the latest thing to wrinkle the police brow. Slaying of a prize rooster at A. J. Boyd home, 523 M. Jameson-ave, some time Sunday night was done in a thorough manner. The weapon was a rifle.

Shot thru one of the wings and body, the chanticleer paid the price, police believe, for early-morning serenading.

It is the first time in police history here that a rooster drew a bullet, it is said.

Boy, Missing for Week, Is Located in Dayton

James May, 13-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John May, 673 N. Jameson-ave, turned up in Dayton, it became known Monday, after a week's absence, during which local police and authorities in other cities sought him in vain.

The lad boarded a B. & O. freight train and rode in a box car as far as Sidney, where the trainmen took him in the caboose. He has a brother in Dayton. The May's formerly resided in Dayton.

Woman Is Publisher BIRMINGHAM, Ala.—Announcement was made by the board of directors of the Birmingham Age-Herald Publishing Company, that Mrs. Lewis B. Barrett has been elected president and publisher. Her late husband was publisher and owner of the paper for nearly 25 years.

WHOM SHALL MOLLY MARRY? Don Makes Spectacular Re-Entry Into Plot

By ZOE BECKLEY

Quickly though she had left Ben Wheeler's office, Molly glimpsed the effect her words had upon him—"Some day someone will use force on you—and then heaven pity you!" She saw him stiffen and the fighting look come into his eyes, but a look of dismay too.

Along with the brute in the primitive male is a childlike side. It is the frightened child in such a man that appeals to the protective instinct of woman.

Molly knew in the last analysis she could both frighten and soothe Ben Wheeler. And that knowledge supplemented the fascination she felt in the bewilderment of the club.

In her bewilderment Molly turned to Billy, the understanding. She would go to his office. But Billy, as if in answer to her need, turned the corner at that very moment, his manner hurried, his face grave.

"Molly! Just whom I wanted!" Before she could answer, Billy lifted a taxi. The address he gave the driver was one of the poorer of Midvale's hotels.

Billy took Molly's hands, holding them firmly.

"Molly—Don Manning has come back. The affair Ben Wheeler brought to a crisis—with Leila Mayrose—just about smashed Don. He opened in Pittsburgh half mad with sleeplessness and brooding. Made a hash of his part and the Pittsburgh people broke the contract. He came back here to get his old place, but the Lyceum manager, furious at his leaving them, turned him down.

"He's in a brainstorm—blames Wheeler for his trouble—telephoned me, asking where he could be found. He sounded crazy. I'm hoping you can help me bring him to reason."

Fingers of fear clutched Molly's heart. It was not hard for her to imagine Donald Manning, mad and desperate, doing any rash and melodramatic thing.

"Yes—it's bad Billy," she whispered huskily.

They reached the stuffy hotel and

"I WAS JUST GOING OUT—THE ENT BUSINESS WITH WHEELER"

Don came down to see them. The change in him was shocking. His instinct for appearances seemed gone. His clothes were unpressed, his linen dingy.

His face was gray except for two spots of hard color in the cheeks. His beautiful eyes were stealthy, restless and brilliant. His smile was forced.

"Ah, Molly—Billy—" He spoke with effort as if his mind were elsewhere. "I was just going out—urgent business with Wheeler—will you excuse me till I—"

"Oh, Don—" Molly was terrified at his eyes, but, wrestling her hand from his sleeve, he was out of the room before they could stop him!

DRAYMEN NOT ARRAIGNED; WILL FIGHT ORDINANCE

City Solicitor Paul T. Landis and William Klingler, attorney for six draymen against whom charges were filed last week for alleged violation of a new city ordinance prohibiting the parking of express wagons anywhere except at the rear of the market house, are conferring on a date to have the cases aired in criminal court.

Klingler announced a plea of not guilty will be entered by his clients and Landis declared he will bring the cases to trial.

A test of the new law will result and a precedent established. There is widespread opposition among draymen to the city against the ordinance. They are reluctant to give up their parking stands near the Court House and also on W. Spring-st, near Main, it is stated.

BRICK BUILDING UNSAFE, BINGHAM, LANKER REPORT AFTER AN INVESTIGATION

Investigation of a brick building reported so dilapidated as to be a constant menace to life and property was made by T. A. Lanker, chief of police, and C. A. Bingham, city manager, Monday.

This building is located at the rear of the Lima House property on the east side of the first alley east of the Public Square, north from Market-st, and is unoccupied at the present time.

Cracks have appeared in the north wall of the building and the walls are bowed out on all sides. It is a menace to all traffic thru the alley, city officials feel.

Communication was being established with the owners of the building in an effort to have it razed at once. There is a possibility that the alley will be temporarily blocked until all danger to traffic is removed.
